"PAY CASH," CRY

Foreign Minister Yen Criticised For Sponsoring Agreement

Representatives of a number of Street Unions met yesterday and adopted resolutions denouncing Dr. W. Yen, Acting Premier, for his settlement of the Shantung Railway issue and asking various associations to cable the Chinese delegates in Washington of their disapproval.

The Pakhoi, Chekiang, Hankow and Wusung Road street unions, and the Chinese Labor Association and Dah Doong Educational Association passed the resolutions, and addressed them to the Chinese and military governors, educational associations, students unions and provincial assemblies all over China.

The resolution asserted that the settlement "battered Japan," that "the settlement was only nominal" and that "Yen is insane and disregards the proposal of the people to redeem the railroad themselves."

"If the Chinese are unwilling to become Koreans," the resolution concludes, "they will wire Washington refusing to recognize the signatures of the Chinese delegates, insisting on the redemption of the railroad by cash payment, demanding the cancellation of all the 21 Demands, and denouncing the national traitors."

U.S. RELIEF WORK IN EUROPE COSTS ENORMOUS SUMS

Two And Half Billions Handled In Six Years, Says Report

(Chung Mei Service)

Washington, Jan. 15 (by mail).—The supplies to be purchased with the $20,000,000 recently voted by the United States Congress for the relief of Russia will be distributed by the American Relief Administration which is now functioning directly under the supervision of President Harding.

The American Relief Administration and its predecessor, the American Committee for Relief to Belgium, in six years has come to the help of approximately 25,000,000 sufferers and has handled $25,000,000 according to a recent report by Mr. Hoover. The sum of $23,000,000 was collected through "public subscriptions" last year to feed children in Europe and, in spite of the fact that 3,000,000 have been fed, about $12,000,000 to $14,000,000 was saved and has since been used in the Russian work.

Today, outside of Russia, the administration is feeding 400,000 to 500,000 children with the assistance of European Governments, which are now assuming eighty-five percent of the cost. In the contemplated operation in Russia the association will carry on all the work and will be willing to pay all the overhead cost, Mr. Hoover announced. The staff now in Russia comprises about seventy-five individuals, he said.

Although transportation facilities in Russia were better than had been expected, for the very reason that the movement of commodities had almost ceased Mr. Hoover said the maximum number of bushels of corn and seed grain that could be moved was 20,000,000 to 22,000,000. This amount would be adequate to carry the now starving population over the winter and through the spring planting.

The bill providing the $20,000,000 necessary for this purchase was introduced at the request of President Harding when, according to Hoover, private charity had failed.

Pastor Of Little Church Around The Corner May Quit

After being pastor for many years of the "Little Church Around the Corner" (probably the most famous and celebrated church in America), the Rev. George Clarke Houghton may resign. Reports are persistent that dissension in the ranks of the vestrymen will force Dr. Houghton, who is at present in Florida, to accept the position of pastor emeritus. During the present pastor's incumbency it is said that more than 7,500 runaway marriages were performed. Dr. Houghton succeeded his uncle, who was the first rector of the "Little Church Around the Corner," the name conferred on it by the late Joe Jefferson, the actor.

CREDITORS OF SHIP COMPANY HOLD MEETING

Confirmation Of Liquidators Of Nancy Moller Concern Is Action Taken

Creditors of the Nancy Moller Steamship Company, Ltd., met yesterday to confirm the appointment of the liquidators, Messrs. Seth, Mansell and McEure. The company, which is capitalised at $250,000, operates the Nancy Moller, one of the Moller fleet. It went into liquidation on January 5 of this year, as a result of the general depression in coastal shipping and the bankruptcy of the man who had chartered the Nancy Moller.

The following resolution was adopted: "That no application be made to the Court for the appointment of any person as liquidator in the place of or jointly with the liquidator appointed by the Company or for the appointment of a Committee of Inspection."

The vessel, which was built in Shanghai in 1919 at a cost of $45,000, was chartered in April of last year for six months to a Chinese at $8,500 a month. It was making the run between Singapore, Java and Borneo when the charterer went into bankruptcy.

Only a portion of the charter money was paid the Nancy Moller Steamship Company, Ltd., there being $20,000 still outstanding. In addition to this, the Nancy Moller Company was forced to pay a bill of 20,000 guilders as the ship was arrested at Java by the dock company there for repair bills which were unpaid. There was a dispute as to whether the charterer or the company was responsible for this general overhaul bill, but the company was finally obliged to foot it. It is proposed to sell the vessel by public treaty as it is feared that should it be put up at auction the creditors would receive very little.

The Nancy Moller Steamship Company is not connected with the Lindsay Moller Company, Ltd., or the Ralph Moller Company, Ltd., which are run separately. These concerns are doing well. They are capitalised at the same figure as the Nancy Moller Company.

The Kaho, one of the boats previously owned by Mr. Eric Moller, was sold in June of last year to the China Merchants Steamship Company.

NO POLITICS IN SHIPPING STRIKE, SAY CANTONESE

'Times' Denies Southern Government Aids Seamen

FEAR EXTENSION

Butterfield And Swire Defend Stand Taken By Employers

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, Feb. 6.—The Canton Times, in an editorial article, states that if the strike continues for any length of time, Canton will also be greatly affected. When cities are so closely related as Hongkong and Canton are, it is impossible to have such a situation in one city without seriously affecting the other. Therefore, it is to the interest of Canton as well as of Hongkong to have the strike settled as speedily as possible.

The general feeling here is that the strike is Hongkong's business; let Hongkong settle it. Governor Chen Chung-ming, at the invitation of the British Consul did what was requested of him and now all the thanks he gets for his help is abuse from the foreign press, continues the article. There have been several items in the foreign press written by malicious persons who would like to have the public believe that the Canton Government is in some way instigating the strikers.

Stories of Presidential teaparties and of assistance offered by Dr. C. C. Wu and other yarns of a similar nature and origin have been given ready credence in Hongkong. This attempt to cloud the real issue and make a simple demand for higher wages on the part of the seamen appear to have some political significance, the article declares, is like making a mountain from a mole-hill.

Canton would like to have the strike settled for a number of Cantonese in Hongkong will suffer hardship if the strike is not settled soon. Then the strike seriously interferes with Canton. Merchants here cannot get their goods or export their products. Far from being pleased over the plight of our neighbor we view the matter as a disaster to ourselves. There are many unions in Canton closely related to the Hongkong unions. If the strike should spread no one can say where it will stop. We have too much power in our own hands, the article concludes, to find any pleasure in the sparks flying this way from the fire in our neighbor's house.

Hongkong, Feb. 6.—A number of American residents have volunteered to enrol as special constables.

Hongkong, Feb. 6.—The Chamber of Commerce market report states that the strike is having a depressing effect on trade generally, but once it is settled there is every reason to hope for a good demand. Fairly good business has been transacted in cotton-yarn after a very slight decline in rates, but, latterly, both business and deliveries have been suspended owing to the seamen's and labor strike.

Manila, Feb. 6.—One hundred and fifty Filipino seamen are leaving for Hongkong today. It is reported that 100 are to be used by Messrs. Smith, Bell and Company's vessels running between Manila, Hongkong and Amoy.

In reply to various criticisms in connection with the Hongkong seamen's strike, including "The Linesman's" article in the Sunday issue of THE CHINA PRESS, the following clear statement of the case for the shipping companies was issued yesterday by Mr. E. F. Mackay, of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire:

COMPANIES' CASE IN SAILOR STRIKE IS STATED HERE

Combination of workmen. We maintain there is no combination of workmen. The history of the movement as far as we know it is as follows: The Seamen's Union, organized and supported by the Canton Government, have forced crews of ships to leave their vessels under threat of violence.

A New Face While You Wait

Women must be beautiful no matter how painful the treatment, and the fashionable woman of today will go to extremes for beauty. A recent dispatch from Paris told of prominent women having nashapely mouths beautified by the aid of plastic surgery. This is not new in America, as Dr. W. Augustus Pratt, of New York, knows the world over as an authority on plastic surgery, has been performing such operations and has been successful in remodeling the features of numerous American women. Only recently Eva Tangany, of "I Don't Care" fame, resorted to an operation to combat the wrinkles which were detracting from her attractiveness. The operation has been quite successful and produced a wonderful change for the better. The top photographs shows Dr. Pratt making the mouth smaller by sewing the corners. Below he is removing the lines from under her patient's eyes by making a small incision, removing a small piece of flesh and then sewing up the incision, which heals in several days. In the upper right-hand corner the fair patient is shown giving herself the once over after a successful operation.

Gentle Art Of Thievery Gentle Indeed In China

By Elsie McCormick

Once, halfway between the soup and the fish, somebody told us about a town so slow that when a policeman chased a burglar they both walked. Over in China such a scene would be impossible, because in the towns of the interior a policeman never chases a burglar. Instead he goes through the streets beating a little gong so as to give the burglars due warning, thus saving trouble for everybody concerned.

A Chinese policeman is as adverse to catching burglars as a little girl is to picking up a wasp. All the sentiments of pacifism inculcated by Signor Confucius rise up under his quilted uniform in revolt against such a high-handed procedure. Besides, as an interior city is divided up among the members of the Thieves' Guild, each policeman comes to know the thieves on his beat and takes an affectionate pride in their workmanship. As long as a Chinese thief is hard-working, quiet, and a guild member in good standing, he need have little fear that his efforts to support his family will be misunderstood by the representatives of the law. If he is a strange thief, however, without a union card, his violation of the closed shop principle often causes his social boycott or might even lead to his arrest.

FOLLOW HOYLE HERE In America, gentlemen of the Jimmie are inclined to be individualistic. In China they are as well-organized as a fraternal drill-team. A foreign burglar seems to fear that association with his co-workers will hurt his social standing and cause the plagiarism of his style; a Chinese burglar foregoethers with his brother professionals at the headquarters of the guild, which is usually in a temple, joins in religious exercises held in honor of the god of thieves, and compares fine points of technique with other members of the housebreaking and purse-snatching craft. The guild often enters into diplomatic relations with the city officials and sometimes expresses a political opinion as on the occasion about two years ago when it voiced its sympathy with the student movement by declaring a forty-eight hour strike. Though the Chinese system of dealing with crime seemed to us as unbalanced at first as a March hare with dementia praecox, a little trapeze work in our upper story helped us to get a different point of view. The Chinese way of looking at it seems to bear some relationship to foreign arguments for the regulation of vice. Thievery will be committed anyway, say the Orientals, so it is better to have it done by well-regulated burglars working under a distinct code of ethics than by unorganized freelances with no respect for the rules of the game.

THE CONSIDERATE COP In order to avoid the unpleasantness of an actual encounter, the Chinese policeman in the interior carries a tin breastplate which he beats continually during his night rounds and thus gives the burglars a chance to take an appropriate recess. It is much better, he says, than sneaking up with gum-shoes, because then he might surprise the burglar and feel obliged to make an arrest which would prove awkward all around. The friendships that grow up between policeman and the burglars on their beat are sometimes positively touching. A Chinese policeman was called to a foreign house in Soochow and shown a burglar-made hole in the compound wall. "Ah, yes, that is Ching-chung," said the policeman with a look of fond recognition in his eyes. "He always makes that kind of hole in the wall."

It is not to be assumed, however, that crime of this type is

CARDINAL RATTI NAMED AS NEW POPE DESPITE GERMAN OPPOSITION

Victor In Balloting Given Red Hat Only Recently; Was Archbishop At Warsaw, And Previously, Librarian At The Vatican

ELECTION RESISTED BY TEUTONS

White Smoke Announcing Successor To Benedict Appeared At 11:33 a.m. Monday; Will Be Known As Pius XI; Is Native Of Milan

(Reuter's Service)

Rome, Feb. 6.—White smoke notifying the election of a new Pope appeared at 11.33 this morning. Cardinal Ratti has been elected, with the name of Pope Pius XI.

The news of the election of Cardinal Ratti to the highest ecclesiastical office in the world comes as something of a surprise, inasmuch as he is one of, if not the latest addition to the College of Cardinals. His name is not included in the list of cardinals in recent reference books, from which it may be reckoned that his elevation to that office was within the last year. His principal service, before his acquisition of the red hat, was in Poland, where he was archbishop of Warsaw.

The new pope was born in Milan, and his first church office was canon of St. Ambrosio, in Rome. This was in 1907. Three years later he became prefect of the library of St. Ambrosio, and in 1912 he was made vice prefect of the Vatican library, and prefect in 1914. On September 18, 1914, he became canon of St. Peter's, in Rome.

In 1918 he was nominated as "apostolic visitor" to Poland and Russia, and was made a nuncio in Warsaw, on June 6, 1919. On July 3, 1919, he was created archbishop of Lepanto, and consecrated at Warsaw by archbishop, afterwards Cardinal, Kakowski, who presented his credentials to Marshal Pilsudski, president of the new Polish republic.

In local Catholic circles little is known of the new Pope and by some of the Shanghai press the suggestion was offered that he was, probably, a compromise choice for the papacy.

On February 2 the Kokusai (Japanese) news agency, in one of its cable despatches from Rome, carried the isolated statement that "Cardinal Ratti will be opposed by the Germans." There was no amplification of this statement, which, however, was taken to mean that Cardinal Ratti's sympathies had been with the Poles and Russians during the war, and that he had given voice to them in a manner that offended Berlin.

Rome, Feb. 5.—The Cardinals began balloting for the election of the Pope on February 2.

Great crowds thronged St. Peter's square, watching for the issuing of smoke from the Vatican chimney. Smoke of a dark colored hue signifies that there has been no result, while the fact that the final choice has been reached is signalled by whitish smoke.

Cinematograph operators took up vantage spots with their machines focussed on the chimney, in readiness to record the dramatic moment.

Harding Orders Work Stopped On All Ships Affected By Treaty

Actual Scrapping Of Vessels To Be Delayed Until All Nations Have Ratified Pact; Saving To United States Will Be Five Millions Monthly

(Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press) Washington, Feb. 6.—President Harding announced today that he would submit all the Conference treaties to the Senate at one time, and that he did not look for a long fight in the Upper House over their ratification.

The American delegation looks upon the settlement of the Shantung question as impressive evidence of the vast results of the Conference.

President Harding has ordered all work stopped on warships falling under the naval treaty, but it was announced that the actual scrapping of vessels would not start until all the other powers had ratified the treaties. The president's order will save the United States five million dollars monthly.

Most of the delegates here look with favor upon the proposal that has been put forth for another international conference to consider rules covering new agencies of warfare and The Hague has been suggested as a meeting place.

News comes from Rome that the Italian ministerial crisis probably will prove a deciding factor for the postponement of the Genoa Conference, although the French, Italian and British governments are continuing their preparations. Most of the governments invited object to the extended and discursive nature of the proposed agenda of the Conference. It is believed that Premier Poincare of France would welcome any pretext for a postponement, desire for which has already been expressed by the American delegates.

FRENCH EDITOR SEES ERROR IN NATION'S POLICY

Attributes Antagonism Of Other Powers To "Negative Policy"

(Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press)

Paris, Feb. 5.—There is evidence that France, after some hard thinking on the part of her spokesmen and leaders, is beginning to "see herself as others see her," and that she realizes particularly that her attitude on several recent questions has brought about the estrangement of certain sections of American public opinion.

M. Millet, foreign editor of the Petit Parisien, writes: "It is only too clear that American public opinion has taken an unfavorable turn, and that the situation with us is worse than it appears."

He goes on to say that only the government keeps press and Congress from giving more vigorous expression to their views, and adds that since France obstructed the work of the Washington conference by her naval demands the country has come to be looked upon as imperialistic and an obstacle to the general welfare of the world.

"This," he continues, "is to a certain degree our own fault. In all conferences we have had only a negative policy, and such is likely to be the case at Genoa. Instead of fearlessly taking the lead for a Democratic movement we continue to play the role of a recalcitrant school boy needing his ears pinched."

Mr. Lloyd George has specially returned from the country to participate in these conferences. It has been arranged that Mr. Arthur Griffith will come to England for a further conference tomorrow.

JOFFRE LEAVES TOKIO; EXPECTED HERE IN MARCH

French Soldier Unable To Attend Yamagata's Funeral

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Feb. 5.—Marshal Joffre left this morning for Kyoto. He was seen off at the station by the Cabinet Ministers and Municipal and Government Officials. His program, which was prearranged elsewhere, has prevented him from carrying out his plan of personally attending Prince Yamagata's funeral, which will take place on February 9.

Definite arrangements for the reception to Marshal Joffre, who is expected in Shanghai from his tour of North China about March 9, are being completed rapidly, it was learned from the French consul-general today.

All details of the reception to and the entertainment of the Marshal have not been perfected yet, but it is known that the French Municipal Council will divide honors with the Shanghai Municipal Council in entertaining the famous general.

(Reuters Service)

Washington, Feb. 4.—The General Far Eastern Treaty recognizes the sovereignty and independence of China and pledges the Powers not to make treaties impairing it or not to support agreements of their nationals tending to create spheres of influence in China.

The Chinese Government agrees not to permit discrimination in the railway against foreigners. The treaty provides for full and frank communication between the Powers, whenever, in the opinion of any one of them, a situation arises which demands the application of the principles of the Treaty.

HURRY TARIFF REVISION
Washington, Feb. 4.—The sixth plenary session of the Washington Conference was held this morning. Mr. Hughes presented the General Far Eastern Treaty, embodying Senator Root's Open Door resolution.

The text of the Treaty follows closely and often identically the language of the resolution already adopted by the Conference. The Treaty was approved by nine Powers without debate.

The declaration to China not to alienate any portion of her territory was put on record.

Senator Underwood then presented the Chinese Tariff Treaty. This treaty follows closely the provisions of the tariff resolution previously adopted and provides that a revision commission shall meet in Shanghai immediately to revise the tariff on a 5 percent basis.

"Effective" revision will be completed within four months and will become effective two months later.

A special conference of the signatory Powers will meet within three months to revise existing treaties and to permit the imposition of a surtax to abolish the likin tax.

The revisions will be authorized every four years. The Powers pledge themselves to effective equality of treatment and opportunity in everything pertaining to Chinese tariffs, the principle of uniformity on land and maritime frontiers.

The Conference approved a resolution providing that obligations to foreign investors in the Chinese railways should be fulfilled.

Applause greeted the announcement that Japan and China had agreed to the form of the treaty to settle the Shantung question.

Much time was taken up in the reading of the statements of the positions of the various Powers on Far Eastern questions. Senator Lodge read a supplement to the Pacific Treaty defining its scope so as not to include the principal islands of Japan.

The Conference adopted a resolution authorizing the establishment of a Board of Reference in China to which could be referred any questions arising in connection with execution of the Open Door Treaty for investigation and report.

The Conference likewise approved the Tariff Treaty.

Senator Underwood declared that the present disturbed condition in China made it manifestly impossible for China to exercise full administrative functions. The effect of the Treaty, he said, would undoubtedly be to double the existing revenue which China received from the Maritime Customs.

Mr. Alfred Sze expressed China's appreciation but said that the proposed arrangement could only be regarded as a temporary measure looking to final Chinese tariff autonomy.

The plenary session closed with a speech by Mr. Balfour who said that despite the fact that the Conference had seemingly traveled all over the globe considering trifling details, great moral questions had been met and any nation which in the future sought to transgress the principles laid down by the Conference regarding China would be considered outside the comity of nations.

Mr. Balfour maintained that the decisions of the Conference would produce a new era over the entire world, especially the part in which the great maritime Powers were deeply interested. He declared that China must work out her own changes in accordance with the changes of a changing world. "All we can do," he said, "is to help her. She can run but little from our advice and in the end she must rely on herself."

M. Sarraut followed and paid a tribute to the work of the Conference.

Going To U.S. For Honeymoon

Mrs. W. L. George

Mrs. W. L. George, only daughter of Mr. Herbert Gelpel, J. P., of Old Hall, Corwold, York, who was recently married to W. L. George, the well-known novelist and artist, who is a fine tennis player and croquet player, having frequently distinguished herself in tournaments. She is also a talented pianist. During the war she served for three years in the Ministry of Munitions, where she achieved the distinction of being the first woman to attain the rank of Section Officer. She will shortly leave England with her husband for a tour of the U. S.

ence as a great example to history. Signor Schanzer and others also spoke, and the Conference then adjourned until Monday when the treaties will be signed.

U. S. IS SATISFIED

London, Feb. 5.—A despatch from Washington states that America's reception of the completed work of the Conference is undoubtedly one of satisfaction.

The irreconcilables have lost much influence through the cordial and felicitous atmosphere marking the closing scene of this historic international gathering, culminating in the signing of the Shantung agreement and thus removing the main plank against the Japanese campaigners and also one of the big rocks on which ex-President Wilson's League of Nations projects foundered.

The signature of the agreement was presumably advanced in order to enable Mr. Balfour to witness the conclusion of the work to which he and Secretary Hughes largely contributed. After the signing, the British delegates bade farewell to President Harding.

Mr. Balfour assured the President that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the success of the Conference, which had demonstrated the feasibility of the conference method of dealing with international questions. There is the success, the potentialities of which may quite conceivably outweigh the actual substantial accomplishments, as fore-shadowing a wider field of international co-operation.

Admittedly, more could have been done if the Conference had been extended. The Chinese Eastern Railway question supplies an example of the difficulties facing the Conference.

The committee to which the question was referred advised that an interallied technical commission should be granted by the Powers, like the supervision of finance and the control of Chinese police, but on the ground that this would be an infringement of Chinese sovereignty, it was finally decided to leave the ordinary diplomatic machinery to find a compromise.

It is a matter for satisfaction that questions of this kind and also the broader worldwide problems, which are at present unsolved were not prejudged and the door to progress in no way barred. Thus the hopeful observers regard the present gathering as merely one of a series of future conferences.

PARDON ANFU LEADERS

Pardon has been granted by the government to Generals Tuan Chi-kwei, Chang Shu-yuen, Liu Sung and Wei Tsung-hai who participated in the clash between the Anfu and Chihli factions in 1920, according to instructions received by the local military authorities from the commander of the Peking Garrison. The message states that the notices for the arrest of the men are withdrawn, but that the military authorities are to observe their movements.

227 cities whose population is 20,000 or more have now organized mayor's emergency committees, or have signified their intention to cooperate with the recommendations of the conference. Unemployment is being lessened in this manner by "cleaning up" the building and municipal work.

STRIKE DEAD LOCK AT HONGKONG IS STILL UNBROKEN

Not Yet Known When Vessels Held Up in South WH Be Able To Sail

Conditions at Hongkong are practically unchanged. The walk-out of seamen and cargo coolies has now settled down into a deadlock, with neither side making overtures.

The local offices of the China Mail Steamship Company have received instructions from Hongkong to send down Ningpo seamen to man the S. S. China, which has been held up in Hongkong practically since the inception of the trouble. A crew of 160 Ningpo men was recruited for the China Mail Steamship Company several days ago by the Oriental Secret Service and was to have been dispatched by the Keystone State, but at the eleventh hour the men backed out. It is believed that they were intimidated.

Cargo for Hongkong continues to pile up here. The Pacific Mail Steamship Company was offered an unusually large cargo for the Golden State, despite the fact that the Pacific Mail boats do not generally carry much cargo to Hongkong as they call at Manila first. The company was forced to decline all Hongkong cargo, however, because of the strike of dock coolies, and their unwillingness to delay the boat on this account. EMPRESS BOATS STILL HELD

No word has come as yet from the head offices of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company as to what action the company will take with regard to the Empress of Japan and the Monticello, both of which are tied up at Hongkong. No instructions have been received by the local offices of the company to recruit Ningpo men here, and it is believed that the company is endeavoring to get Filipino crews from Manila.

According to a message from Hongkong to the Sin Wan Pao, pigs, oxen and sheep have been shipped from Canton to Hongkong by British gunboats, fuel and rice have recovered their normal prices, but high prices still prevail in the case of fish, beef, pork and vegetables.

Armed police stand by the laborers engaged in discharging the provisions and livestock imported from Canton, and the foreign residents of the colony have organized a corps of volunteers. It is estimated that the seamen's strike has inflicted on the Chinese merchants in Hongkong a total loss of more than $3,000,000.

As a measure to prevent any delay that might be occasioned by the strike of seamen and cargo coolies at Hongkong the entire Chinese crew of 113 of the Pacific Mail steamer Golden State was replaced by Ningpo men before the vessel sailed Sunday afternoon.

For the time being the company is providing quarters and sustenance for the southern Chinese that were taken from the vessel and it has not yet been announced what will be done with them. As a further step to keep the ship on schedule it is known that arrangements have been made to provide a Filipino crew for the ship at Manila if this is deemed advisable. Precautions like those taken in the case of the Golden State also are to be taken in connection with the company's liner Empire State, which is due to arrive here near the end of the month.

The Seamen's Union at Canton has wired to various of the Chinese newspapers, labor organizations, merchants' associations and other bodies here asking that efforts be made to put a stop to the recruiting of sailors from this port to break the strike.

Trade With Japan Shows Heavy Slump

A heavy slump in China-Japan trade during January, as compared with the same month last year, is reported by the Kuo Wen News Agency, which attributes the decline to revival of the boycott on account of the Japanese attitude at the Washington Conference. Imports for the month are reported as standing at Y.20,499,000, a reduction of Y.12,000,000, while the exports from China are set at $9,392,000, a drop of over $10,000,000 as compared with the January 1921 total.

Everything's Lovely

(Eastern News Agency)
Peking, Feb. 5.—Information these days from various sources confirms the belief that there will not be any break-up between the Chihli and Mukden factions, and that there is a hope for a peaceful solution. The political atmosphere in Peking is, therefore, greatly relieved.

much more common in China than in the West or that the Chinese law cannot take a swift and awful vengeance when the Thieves' Guild violates the unwritten code. When for some reason a burglar is arrested, his trial is as short as the marriage service read by a Justice of the Peace. Frequently he is executed first and tried afterwards. A foreigner in an interior province who encountered a burglar in his home was called upon next day by a messenger from the yamen. "Did you get a look at the man?" the messenger inquired. "I did," the foreigner answered. "Well, is any of these him?" queried the representative of the law, opening the sack and rolling several heads out on the floor.

FOREIGN COPS COLD

In Shanghai, where eccentric foreign police fail to appreciate the advantages of a little co-operation, the Thieves' Guild leads a less easy existence. Constant interference with its activities has retarded the development of an ingenuously unparalelled by the most efficient penitentiary residents of the West. In fact, their systems for extracting other people's solatials are almost as good as the excuses offered when the offenders happen to be caught.

For instance, a certain foreign firm had its electric desk-fans wrapped in brown paper at the end of the summer and stored on a shelf where they were always in view. It didn't seem possible under such circumstances that their theft could fall to be noticed. The following year, however, when the good old summer time rolled around again, it was discovered that the original fans had been abstracted and wooden models put in their place.

A favorite form of larceny in Shanghai, according to the Police Department, is the dropping of a purse containing a little money and some five, ten, fifteen cent store jewelry in the proximity of a gentleman with straw in his hair. Sometimes the purse is picked up by an accomplice, who promises to share the treasure with the backwoodsman in return for a piece of genuine jewelry. Sometimes the Chinese Raffles generously allows the country gentleman to pick up the purse himself, then rushes forward and demands a share, showing a later willingness, however, to compromise the matter by accepting a bit of the gentleman's own adornment. In either case, the incident simply means that another resident of the rice-district learns for himself that Shanghai is a bold, bad city.

THE BAMBOO METHOD

A variety of theft most commonly used in lightening the property ownership of foreign homes is that of breaking a front-door pane of glass and inserting a thin bamboo pole, equipped for lifting hats and coats from the hall-tree. The same apparatus is used for stealing globes from street-lamps. Chinese globes have frequently been robbed by well-dressed thieves who represented themselves as meter inspectors employed by the Municipal Electricity Department. When a member of the family accompanies them on their inspection, they usually get rid of him by requesting that he go into another room to switch on the lights.

Another pet in the bag of tricks is the habit of purchasing expensive goods and asking a shop assistant to come along for the money. Usually the supposed purchaser brings the unsuspecting assistant into a shop with two entrances and lets him wait until the door-knobs hatch. In one case on record, an alleged customer put some valuable silk in a large box by the wall and then went to the next room, presumably for the money. When the assistant went to get his silk after a long wait, he learned the sad fact that the box had a cut-out side which covered an opening in the wall, thus making it possible to extract the contents from the next room. Neither silk nor buyer were ever heard from.

For many years there has been prevalent in American an idea that the Chinese are superhumanly honest. From the high opinion many foreigners who visit the East swing after their first disillusionment to the very opposite view. Neither those who freely state that there is no such thing as a dishonest Chinese nor those who say that there was never an honest one approach the truth. China is certainly not without its thieves, but considering the prevailing poverty and the amount of temptation, the number is after all creditably small.

Seaman Gets Good Advice From Court

E. J. Phillip, British seaman, unemployed, who was called to answer a charge of drunkenness in the British Police Court yesterday, offered the plea that a friend had given him several drinks after which his memory of events failed. The police testified that Phillip had been arrested near the Astor House drunk and incapable on Saturday afternoon.

In administering a caution to the defendant before dismissing the charge Magistrate King advised Phillip not to call a man friend who gets one drunk and leaves one on the streets.

Rehearsing Daily For Dance Pageant Of Washington Ball

The "gavotte" is to be practised today. Applications for tickets to the ball, which have been limited to 1,000, should be made to Capt. V. Olcott, 39 Pearson Road; Mr. F. J. No Politics In Shipping Tie-up willingly and proceed to Canton under promise of the certain increase in wages outlined in their demands, out of which when settled the Union is to deduct $1.00 per man per month.

The men are taken up to Canton and provided with house accommodation and 2 meals of poor food per day plus a few coppers, but they are not allowed to leave and have no money themselves, with which to pay their return passages. Very few of the men wanted to strike, and the large proportion are now most anxious to return but have not the wherewithal to do so. Quite a number of men have escaped and walked to railway stations en route to Hongkong as they are not allowed to embark at Canton. These men have rejoined their vessels at Hongkong on the old terms only too willingly, and some have come on to Shanghai as stowaways and rejoined here also on the old terms. Chinese seamen in Shanghai are signing on willingly on the old terms.

OBJECT TO CANTON

Regarding the question of arbitration the Shipping Companies have offered to submit the whole question to Arbitration in Hongkong, but they decline to agree to settlement of a Hongkong labor question in Canton where it is, at least doubtful if a Board could be selected capable of dealing with the matter at issue with equity and justice.

Amount of advance. Much has been said about a certain statement in the North China Daily News regarding the aggregate of the advance to each ship. This statement was published without making enquiry of the Shipping Companies, who are in no way responsible for its publication.

When it is realized that quite a large proportion of the vessels on the China coast are at present running at a loss, and that the Officers and Engineers' Guilds at home have consented to a very considerable reduction in wages (see Reuters recent telegrams on this subject) it may be conceded that this is no time to demand an increase in wages. Rather a decrease is indicated.

Stewards and Coal Coolies. It has been stated that these men are also coming out in sympathy, but the most recent private information is that the same methods as were applied to the Seamen have not been altogether successful with the stewards, and the request to supply stewards from the North has been cancelled.

HOLD DECISION CLEAR

Magistry of Hongkong Government Action in declaring the Seamen's Union an unlawful Society. The Magistrate's decision in Hongkong is quite clear.

The decision of this Court is that you have committed an offence. The charge is that you went on board without permission of the master. It appears to me that your object was to induce the members of the crew to leave the ship forthwith and I find that they had followed your advice they would have broken their agreement. That is an offence under Section 9 of the Ordinance which states that it is an offence for any seaman to violate his agreement. The offence with which you are charged shows that you were going on board to commit an evil action and any one who goes on board to break the law can be assumed to have gone on board without permission. The maximum penalty for this offence is a fine of $50. It also states that you can be imprisoned without option. If there had been any evidence that you spoke to the crew I would have sent you to prison, but as there is no evidence on this point you are fined $50."

INCREASE PROMISED

We have promised to give them some increase. That offer is still open. The question of arbitration is still on offer as well. The shipping companies will not consent to an arbitration in Canton, the reason for which should be obvious to any one. This is a labor dispute in Hongkong. Why should it be settled in Canton. We consider that a properly appointed board of arbitration should be in Hongkong, and we shall maintain that attitude rigidly.

We have these strikers returning to Shanghai as stowaways. As soon as they arrived here they called at our office, and expressed a desire to go on the ships at the old scale of pay. All those men who returned have been taken by the Companies, and placed on the coastal boats. A great many of the seamen had tramped from Canton to Hongkong, and they are all Cantonese.

I may tell you that the whole of the crew of the Taming who struck have returned to join their ship in Hongkong. The Taming unfortunately has not been able to leave Hongkong owing to the sympathetic strike of the cargo coolies in port and her cargo could not be discharged. A great majority of the seamen who went on strike were taken forcibly off the ships by the Seamen's Union. The shipping companies are prepared to concede something.

SMUTS URGED TO MEDIATE IN MINE WALKOUT

Tram Service Resumed In Johannesburg; Czechs On Strike

(Reuters Service)
Johannesburg, Feb. 4.—The majority of the strikers has been broken by the action of the moderate section, in the shape of the Germiston Strike Committee repudiating the leaders and asking General Smuts to consider the appointment of an arbitration court.

General Smuts consented, but the crowd imprisoned the members of the Committee in their office and did not release them until they gave their word of honor not to visit General Smuts.

Johannesburg, Feb. 2.—The public is relieved at today's developments. The tram service has been resumed and power is again available for the industries.

The miners on strike at Witbank have asked the Federation to arrange an interview with General Smuts with a view to terminating the strike. On the other hand, representatives of the Unions held a meeting at Germiston and demanded that the Federation should call a general strike on Saturday.

Five pickets have been arrested.

Johannesburg, Feb. 3.—The Workers Federation has decided to accept the invitation in General Smuts's letter to use the Government machinery for the purpose of investigating a way out of the present dispute. A delegation of five representatives of the Federation will meet General Smuts tomorrow morning.

Prague, Feb. 4.—Coal miners, numbering 135,000, have gone on strike in Czechoslovakia.

WOMEN'S CLUBS ARE PRAISED BY Y.M.C.A. LEADER

Praise for their work and helpful co-operation is accorded the American Woman's Club, the Woman's Overseas League and the Minute Girls' Club in the report of the Navy Y. M. C. A. which is published by Secretary Brown in the Community Church bulletin.

"Perhaps one of the most worthwhile accomplishments of the year is the organized volunteer help which has grown out of the unselfish spirit of service shown by these organizations (the American Woman's Club, the Woman's Overseas League, the American Community Church and the Minute Girls Club)," writes Mr. Brown.

"A committee called the Central Committee composed of chairmen of committees on Navy Y. M. C. A. work and representing the organizations mentioned above meets and plans the program one month ahead, each organization taking some definite responsibility for the month. In this way no one organization is over-worked and yet all are doing something. The experiment seems to be 100 percent efficient."

"The Community Church is co-operating with us in our religious work as well as the social. Their Navy Y. M. C. A. Committee has as its goal the placing of every sailor who attends church, in a real American home for dinner. On the night of July 3, 153 men were thus entertained. The advertising campaign which has been carried on in the church bulletin is showing results and the people are becoming more interested in and feeling more a responsibility for the American sailor."

EXPLAINS BILL

(Reuters Service)
Amsterdam, Feb. 5.—The Minister of the Navy has issued a statement, maintaining that the introduction of the Naval Bill is not premature in view of the Washington Conference discussions and declaring that the Government agrees as regards the necessity for improvement of international relations in the Far East, but nevertheless considers that it ought to provide for the defence of the East Indies. The statement concludes that the proposed measure aims at defence only.

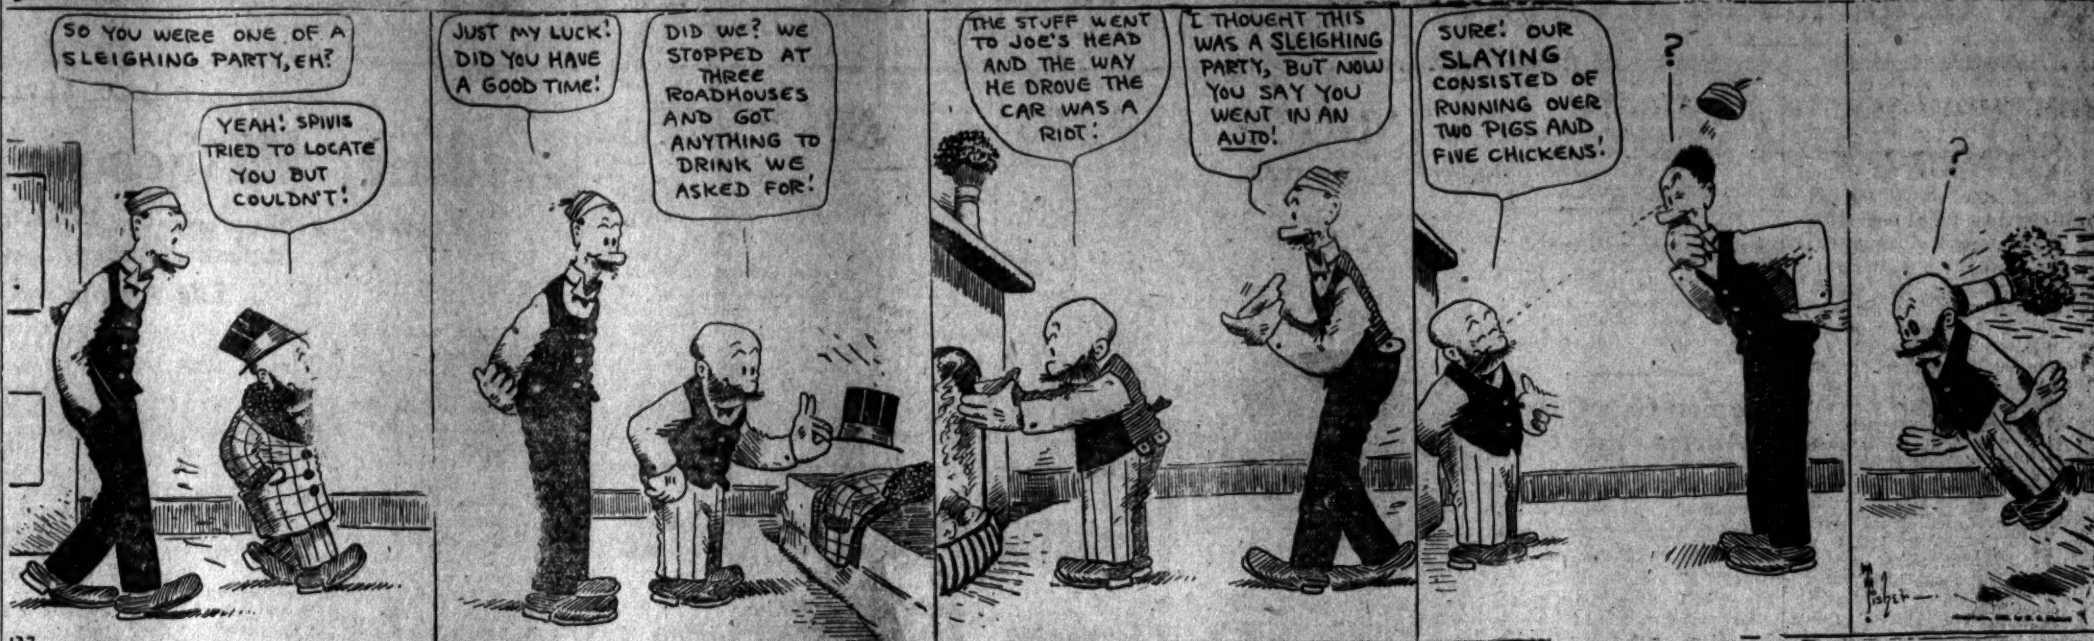

A Judicious Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade, says he has often heard druggists ask a customer, who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult and if for a child, they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed. WAR OF TENANTS AND LANDLORDS AGAIN RESUMED

Seventy-Three Cases To Oust Householders Are Filed By One Firm

Actions to dispossess tenants alleged to be in arrears with rental payments were begun in 73 cases yesterday in the Civil Division of the Mixed Court by Lester, Johnson and Morris. This indicates that the controversy between landlords and tenants is being resumed on even a large scale that earlier in the year when the Mixed Court decided to issue an order granting each tenant the right to appear before being dispossessed.

Lester, Johnson and Morris as landlords of sixty-nine residences in Yunnan Road and four houses in Foochow Road filed sealing orders claiming that the tenants were in arrears in their rents for the eleventh month of last year from one to three months rents.

Yesterday's filings are the largest that have been made in the Mixed Court and as the order made by the Assessors and Magistrates is still in force each of the tenants will have the right to appear personally or by attorney and contest the landlords' claims. Before the order was issued tenants were often ousted from their houses without their knowledge of any legal proceedings against them. Since that time the Court has entered into a detailed investigation of each case.

Hankow Teamwork Beats Shanghai Hockey Eleven

Up-River Players Surprised Themselves in Trimming Visitors

Hankow, Feb. 2.—After a strenuous tussle, in spite of mud and turf flying in all directions, Hankow won over Shanghai here yesterday in the interport match, by a score of five goals to two. The game was played after a snowstorm, and the field was cleared and made into possible playing condition only by a hard morning's work by ground keepers.

Hankow took the lead in the scoring, counting first after ten minutes of play, and again shortly afterwards. The ball was in Shanghai's territory almost constantly during this time. Shanghai scored first after some minutes of exciting play, Seddon receiving a fine center shot and making the most of it. The visitors' goal however was quickly topped by Hankow, bringing the score at half time to Hankow 3, Shanghai 1.

Hankow forwards forced the play in the second half being well fed by their halves and in a few minutes scored their fourth goal. Shanghai made a last rally combining their men more satisfactorily than in the opening period, and kept Hankow on the defensive for some time. A splendid clearance by Hankow, however, sent the ball into their own forwards' hands, and a good run up the field gave the home team their final goal.

The last goal of the match was scored by Shanghai, who after a pretty run got through Hankow's defense, Seddon again being the one to put the ball into the net. Hockey critics gave the Shanghai back much credit for their general efficiency in breaking up dangerous attacks. Hankow's defense was particularly strong and the win was credited largely to their efforts. The home forwards played well together, more so than in their practice trials, and the combination proved unbeatable.

Northern Am'n School Play Hockey

Peking, Feb. 2.—The Peking American School and the North China American School of Tungchow will cross sticks in the first ice-hockey match that has ever taken place between these institutions on Monday morning. The match will be played at 11 o'clock on either the Marine Rink or the rink of the Peking Club.

Eric Thunder, the junior flash, is captain of the Peking team and is expected to play a star game at forward. He will be supported by M. Arnold, H. Arnold and A. Sullivan, all of whom are good skaters and snappy forwards. The rest of the team will be selected from Ingram, Taylor, Lowry and the Woods brothers.

The Peking youngsters have had a lot of practice and are said to be playing well together. They are expected to beat the Tungchow boys pretty easily, as skating facilities at Tungchow are not good and practice consequently scarce.

SCOTLAND TIES WALES AT RUGBY; LOSES AT SOCCER

(Reuters Service) Edinburgh, Feb. 4.—A Rugby football match played here today between Scotland and Wales resulted in a draw, each side scoring 9 points.

Twenty-two thousand spectators witnessed the match. In the first half the play was very even and when the whistle blew neither team had scored. On the resumption of play, Wales scored a try which they converted. Scotland retaliated with two tries and a penalty goal, but this advantage was short-lived for strenuous pressure by the Welsh enabled them to equalize by a dropped goal.

SOCCER GAME
London, Feb. 4.—Wales beat Scotland by two goals to one in an international soccer match played at Wrexham today. The game was played in a snowstorm. At half-time Wales was leading by two goals to nil. The Scots made gallant efforts to reduce the lead and scored 20 minutes after the resumption of play. Then the Welsh goal-keeper was carried off the field injured, but despite this mishap the Welshmen doggedly defended their goal to the end.

CHIAOTUNG FIVE LOSES TWICE ON NORTHERN TOUR

(China Press Correspondence) Tientsin, Feb. 3.—The basketball team of the Chiao-tung university, on which several Nanyang students play, went down to two defeats at Tientsin here this week, once to the Tientsin "Y," and again to the Anglo-Chinese College.

On Wednesday the visitors, who are touring Northern and Eastern China in basketball, football and volleyball, were beaten 33-16, by the Tientsin "Y," on the latter's floor. The teams were fairly evenly balanced during the first half. At the whistle the score was 14-10 in favor of the "Y." In the second half the "Y" drew ahead by opening up their game and resorting to long drives, which were unusually successful.

The game with the Anglo-Chinese college played on the college field yesterday was won on the home boys' better combination. Some of their men had played against the visitors the night before in the Y.M.C.A. match. There shooting also was better. The final score was Anglo-College 40, Chiao-tung 22.

Chiao-tung Wins At Volley-ball

(China Press Correspondence) Tientsin, Feb. 3.—Chiao-tung university's volleyball team won one game here yesterday with the Anglo Chinese college 21-9, and another at Peking on Tuesday with the Peking National University, 21-8.

Chiao-tung Team Draws At Soccer

(China Press Correspondence) Tientsin, Feb. 4.—The game between the Anglo-Chinese College and the Chiao-tung combination on the former's ground at Laoshikol yesterday afternoon, played before a large crowd of spectators, resulted in a draw of two goals each. The visitors were not up to the standard of the Shanghai College team which visited the North some years ago, but they held a fairly good all-round team, and the local College boys did well to draw with them. Their performance was the more meritorious in view of the fact that at the interval they were two goals down, and had had the mortification of missing a penalty.

Exchanges ruled fairly even throughout, and halves and forwards were specially active on account of the large amount of mid-field play. The visitors opened their account after a struggle in the Anglo-Chinese College goal-mouth, and before half-time had obtained a second point, the inside-left adding the final touch to some smart work.

The local College deserved the two goals that rewarded their efforts in the second half. One of them fell to the inside-right, who was one of the most conspicuous forwards on the field, and was a source of constant worry to the opposing defense. The other was scored after some excitement in front of goal, the keeper running out and failing to recover in time.

Chiao-tung and a British Military eleven play here this afternoon.

NESTLES SHOOT FEB. 20.

A Hint To Shanghai Hockey And Basketball Players

Mr. E. W. Gould, of the Princeton University ice hockey team takes no chances when he goes into a game. He wears a headgear of his own design, ready for the roughest of the fray. Kelhofer, of the Shanghai Baptist College wears such a mask while playing basketball, for the purpose of protecting his spectacles without which he could not participate in the game. Sheldon, another basketballer who wears specs, might also adopt the headgear. It would give him a feeling of security when mixing in a scramble for the ball, and relieve him of constantly protecting his face when his best efforts are required.

PEKING "Y" LEADS IN BASKETBALL IN FOUR CLUB LEAGUE

Peking, Feb. 2.—Three games have been played by each of the four teams composing the Peking Basketball League, with that of the Y. M. C. A. showing a marked superiority by its decisive victories over the Marines, the Language School, and the Y. M. C. A. members' team. The league is made up of these four organizations, a fifth team having dropped out and the Y. M. C. A. members team being that originally designated as the Chinese Returned Students' quintet. The first round of the series is now completed and at least one more round will be played during this season.

The first games played some two weeks ago resulted in victories for the Marines and the Y.M.C.A., the former defeating what was then called the Returned Students team by the score of 45 to 17. In the Y.M.C.A.—Language School contest the Y. M. C. A. came out on the top of a 35 to 23 score. The next week the Marines won from the Language School, 27 to 21 while the Y. M. C. A. overwhelmed the Y. M. C. A. members quintet by a score of 60 points to 11.

Two games concluding the first round were played last night and brought together the two strongest teams—the Y. M. C. A. and the Marines. The decisive score of 48 to 18 left no doubt of the superiority of the Y. M. C. A. In the first half the score stood 31 to 6, the Marines showing little opposition and the Y. M. C. A. scoring almost at will. The second half was a little more even but the Y. M. C. A. annexed 17 more points to their opponents 12. J. S. Wang was the star player of the evening with ten baskets to his credit while C. T. Liang shot five in the first period. Captain Knapp of the Marines was the high scorer for his team with six baskets from the field and three fouls.

The nucleus of this Y. M. C. A. team played last year on the Peking team that won the Far Eastern Championships at Shanghai and is considered easily comparable to any college team in the United States.

The other game played last night resulted in the Language School defeating the Y. M. C. A. members by the score of 37 to 15. Cline of the Language School was easily the outstanding figure of this contest netting a total of nine baskets and five fouls. S. C. Wang with three field goals was the heavy scorer for the losers.

M. G. CO. WIN AT SOCCER
The Machine Gun Co. won over the Portuguese company 10 goals to 1 Sunday on the Football Club's grounds, thus qualifying for the semi-finals in the S.V.C. Challenge Cup Football competition. The Portuguese lost on bad shooting and poor passing. The Gunners scored four in the first half on the combined efforts of Cook and Goldman. In the second half Hammond scored three, and Goldman, Cook and Borges filled out to the total.

Basketball Record Set For Foul Goals

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Jan. 6.—What is thought to be a world's record for foul shooting in professional basketball was hung up here last night by Mike Sweeney, former inter-collegiate champion while at Pennsylvania University, who shot fourteen consecutive fouls while playing with Niagara Falls against the Buffalo Orioles. The Orioles won the game, 46 to 32.

This makes a total record of twenty-three consecutive fouls in two games for Sweeney.

England's Golfers Win At Hongkong

Hongkong, Feb. 1.—England gained an unexpectedly easy victory over Scotland at Fanling on Sunday by 24 points to 13½ and the St. George's Society therefore becomes entitled to hold the trophy presented by Sir Newton Stabb, Mr. John Johnstone and Mr. G. C. Moxon for the year. In the morning singles England led by 13½ to 11½ and the four ball matches in the afternoon went in their favor by 10½ to 2½.

Strokeside Defeats "Y" 50-32 In Good Basketball

Neprud Back In Game Throws 13 Baskets; Schools Play Tonight

The Strokeside of the Rowing Club climbed up a few points yesterday on the Bearcats' perfect score, when they won 50-32 over the Y.M.C.A. five. They stand today with 916 percent; just 289 ahead of the American Trading company, occupants of third position.

Neprud came back into the game last night, for the first time since his injury in the American football game at New Year's. He played at forward and it would seem that his long lay-off has not impaired his basketball ability, for he kept his team far in the lead, scoring 26 points alone.

The "Y" team, excepting for Van Hook was composed of American School reserves. In the second half, when Van Hook dropped out, not an old-line "Y" man was on the floor. The boys however did well, considering the class of team they opposed. Shipley's shooting of difficult tries was one of the features of the game. Squires also was good at forward.

The Strokeside also played a different lineup. Goldmac and E. Nash were absent and Johnson showed up late. Coulcher worked at forward with Neprud, and the two Day boys with H. Nash filled out. The quintet however was strong and working good.

The scheduled game between Andersen Meyer and Shanghai College was forfeited to the latter by non-appearance.

The two schools, the American and the Public clash tonight at the "Y" in what should be one of the best games of the year. There is a keen basketball rivalry between schools and it is bound to show in unusually hard play tonight. The American School have a little advantage over the Public boys in their present standing and with their reserves practiced up from "Y" colors they should be in a position to give the S.P.S. boys a tussle worth seeing.

Last night's score follows:
Strokeside 50, Y.M.C.A. 32
Coulcher LF Shipley

STEAMER BURNED TO WATER LINE NEAR KIANGNAN

Believed Blaze Was Caused When Rat Overturned Lighted Lantern

Fire believed to have started when a rat overturned a lighted lantern aboard the steamer Ching Hsin, which was on the water line Sunday as it lay in the Arsenal reach near the Kianganan dock. The Ching Hsin was entirely of wooden construction and was owned by a Chinese company. The flames were discovered by a sergeant of the River police. The Assistant Harbor Master and river policemen took the Customs fire boat up river, but by the time that they arrived the vessel was ablaze, fore and aft, and efforts to check the flames proved fruitless. Men from the Kianganan Dock took charge of the ruined hull yesterday afternoon and beached it above the Arsenal to prevent its sinking in the fairway. It is understood that no insurance was carried on the ship.

The crew, who were on board at the time of the outbreak, said that they had been awakened by the smoke and crackling of the flames and had barely escaped. They attributed the blaze to a lamp which had been burning in the commodore's cabin and which, they said, had probably been overturned by a rat.

DELINQUENTS IN FLORIDA GET NOVEL SENTENCES

Will Be Sent To "School Of Opportunity" In Jacksonville

(China Press Service)
West Palm Beach, Fla., Jan. 4.—Illiterate boys and girls under the age of twenty-one who are brought into municipal court here in future will be sentenced to the School of Opportunity instead of jail as the result of a movement launched by Municipal Judge Joe L. Eganman, former newspaper publisher and editor, and backed by the Rotary Club and other civic organizations.

The School of Opportunity has been organized along the lines of the usual public school with a board of three trustees consisting of Judge Eganman, City Manager Carl Riddle and Chief of Police Frank Matthews. Business men have offered to provide suitable clothing for students who otherwise might feel embarrassment because of their attire and Judge Eganman has taken it upon himself to provide textbooks, having placed an order for $500 worth of readers, arithmetics, spelling and writing books, to which subjects the course of study will be confined.

The youngsters sentenced to the school will become members of special classes and will be instructed by a teacher employed by the City School Board. Classes will be held in the city school building at hours which will not conflict with the regular classes of the school, the girls and young women to attend from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and the boys from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

In order that the students may have individual instruction, classes will be limited to twenty members and when the pupils have worked their way through a simple spelling book, a second reader and fractions they will be given diplomas with all the ceremony incident to a high school commencement.

WAR RUMOR DENIED

(Reuters Pacific Service)
Peking, Feb. 2.—The Mexican Legation has issued the following contradiction of the recent report that war had been declared between Mexico and Guatemala:

It is learned that certain news agencies have circulated a report that a state of war exists between Mexico and Guatemala. This report is absolutely false. No development has occurred to affect the relations existing between the two countries.

50 Plays Fail In N.Y.; Producers To Declare 'Holiday'

(Chung Mei Service)

New York, Jan. 15 (by mail).—As the results of the failure of approximately fifty plays in New York this season, some of the most prominent New York producers have undertaken a theatrical holiday. Several have announced that they will produce no more plays this season. Other managers are going to cut production to a minimum. And still others are ready to abandon New York for London. One has already done so.

Lack of business is the chief reason, of course, for this curtailment. An important factor, however, is the high cost of travel which operates against attempting to retrieve on the road the fortunes of a play that has failed in New York.

Women Of Forty-Eight Nations Pledge Aid To Harding

THE pledge of millions of women from forty-eight nations was given President Harding in support of his efforts to turn the mind of the world to the elimination of war and its causes. They heartily commend and endorse the program of Secretary Hughes for the limitation of armaments. A delegation representing these women in all parts of the world, headed by Mrs. Borden Harriman, called upon President Harding at the White House. They are, left to right:—Mrs. George T. Odell, of the Woman's International League for Peace and Freedom; Mrs. Milton J. Higgins of Massachusetts, of the National Congress of Mothers; Miss Emma Weld, of Washington, representing the Women's Committee for World

Disarmament; Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, of California, of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; Miss Milton Parkhurst, of New York, of the National League of Women Voters; Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, chairman of the International Mass Meeting, and Miss Julia O'Connor, representing the National Women's Trade Union League.

Brings Queer Charge Against Compradore

A peculiar case occurred in the Mixed Court yesterday when the compradore of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, Mr. Leang, appeared as defendant to the charge of larceny of $80 worth of timber.

Mr. Lipson Ward, defending, declared that the charge was a preposterous and malicious one brought by a contractor who had been engaged by the defendant to erect a certain building, had been given an advance of Tls. 20,000 and then had failed to live up to the contract or to return the money advanced. The action, he stated, had evidently been taken to prevent Mr. Leang from appearing in a civil action taken against the complainant, hearing of which is set for Thursday. In the civil action one of the claims is that the security furnished by the contractor was a forgery. The timber involved in the criminal action is said to have been "planted" on the defendant's property under instruction of the complainant.

Assessor Hutchison ordered that the timber be held pending the hearing of the civil suit. A warrant was asked for the arrest of the contractor on charges of malicious prosecution and false pretenses. This matter was taken under advisement.

BOMB PLANTERS GET SENTENCES OF FOUR YEARS

Sentences of four years' imprisonment each, to be followed by expulsion from the Settlement, were served by the Mixed Court yesterday on the two Chinese found guilty of attempting to extort $20,000 from the Sincere Company by means of threatening letters and bombs.

The men were arrested in Frenchtown by Detective Inspector Cruikshank and a Chinese detective and a quantity of ingredients for bomb manufacture, together with copies of threatening letters, were found in their lodgings. The two are to be turned over to the French police before serving their sentences in order to permit investigation of crimes with which they are said to have been connected in the French Concession.

Several bombs were planted on the Sincere Company's premises, one of which exploded cracking a plate glass window.

'Little Hsu' Soon To Visit Shanghai

(Eastern News Agency)
Canton, Feb. 5.—General Hsu Shuchen (Little Hsu) arrived here a few days ago from Kueilin and proceeded to Hongkong on February 2.

In this connection a government attaché said that the insolent attitude of Little Hsu had greatly injured Dr. Sun's feelings, with the consequence that no concrete arrangements had been made between the General and Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

According to others, however, General Hsu is in full understanding with Dr. Sun and is about to leave the South for Shanghai with a view to planning something in the North.

Germans In Harbin Sing The Old Songs

(Daily News Agency)

Harbin, Feb. 2.—In honor of Mr. Walter, the German Consul, who recently arrived from London, the German colony here held a banquet in the Commercial Club. In the course of the dinner German monarchist songs were sung, and upon the request of the guests the band twice played the former Russian anthem "God Save the Tsar."

The members of the club, indignant at the action of the representatives of the republicans in Germany, decided to take special measures for preventing further playing of the Tsarist anthem in the premises of the club.

On Making Sure

There is nothing like making sure where one's health is concerned. Good health is the best guarantee that life shall be a success. Now it is well-known that digestive disorders are the cause of more cases of ill-health than any other class of ailment. The digestive system is so extensive, so complex and so hard-worked, that its liability to derangement is not astonishing. Happily, however, many digestive ailments can be easily remedied. Happily, too, many digestions need never go wrong. You can make reasonably sure that your digestion will not fail you, even under trying conditions, if you get into the excellent way of taking Beecham's Pills. This "Wonderful Medicine"—as it has been called—does really work wonders with the digestive system. Beecham's Pills impart tone to the stomach, regulate the action of the liver and kidneys and gently stimulate the bowels into healthy activity. Get into the habit of making sure. Have recourse to Beecham's Pills at the first sign of digestive trouble. Make sure of your health by taking Beecham's Pills.

MEMORIAL FOR GRACE COPPOCK NEXT THURSDAY

A service in memory of the late Miss Grace L. Coppock, former general secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association in China, will be held Thursday at 4:30 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, 120 Szechuen Road. All friends of Miss Coppock and all sharing in her interest in the womanhood of China are asked to take part in the service. Mrs. T. H. Lee, president of the board of directors of the Shanghai Y.W.C.A., and Mrs. D. Y. Lin, of the National Committee of the Young Women's Christian Association in China, will preside.

The speakers will be friends of Miss Coppock who had been associated in various works with her for many years and who can therefore best express the inspiration for service which was the secret of her influence in the work for China to which she had given fifteen years of her life. These speakers will be Dr. Cheng Ching-yi, of the China Continuation Committee; Mrs. H. C. Mei, chairman of the National Committee of the Y.W.C.A.; Miss Y. J. Fan, Miss Jane Shaw Ward, and Miss Grace Yang. Mrs. T. C. Chu, former chairman of the National Committee, will read resolutions adopted by the Young Women's Christian Association of America as a memorial to Miss Coppock. There will be special music by Mrs. S. M. Woo and Dr. W. B. Billingshurst, assisted by a choir composed of Chinese and foreign singers.

The death of Miss Coppock occurred October 15, following a serious operation. Her going took from China one of the country's greatest women leaders, and is keenly felt in every province and section of the country. Immediately following her graduation from the University of Nebraska, U.S.A., she came to China and after a brief training became general secretary of the Shanghai Y.W.C.A., now located at 11a Qianzan Road. After a furlough spent at the National Training School for Y.W.C.A. secretaries in America, she returned in 1912 to assume the position of general secretary of the National Committee of Young Women's Christian Associations for China, which she held until her death. Her faith in the powers for Christian leadership inherent in Chinese women was so strong that it was perhaps her greatest concern that a Chinese associate had not been found to share her work but under her wise and confident guidance a generation of Chinese leaders of great promise are now developing.

Many Gamblers Are Rounded Up During Week-End

The gambling fraternity was largely in evidence at the Mixed Court yesterday as a result of raids made by the police over the week-end.
Of thirty-two men rounded up by Sub-Inspector Dunne and a squad in a "loafers' club" at 136 Chekiang Road, one, the proprietor, an ex-policeman, paid a fine of $50, twenty-one of the gamblers were fined $5 each and ten forfeited bail money amounting to $100 by not appearing.
The conductor of an establishment at 1 Fokien Road was likewise fined $50 and twenty of his patrons the usual $5 each. Police attention to the den was attracted by a fight between several of the gamblers.
A domino party at 799 Siza Road yielded 19 prisoners. They claimed to be members of the same family engaging in a little family game and the fines were moderated to $3 each.

ARREARS PAID TO PEKING TEACHERS, SCHOOLS RE-OPEN

Trouble Over Temporarily—
Some Demands Not Yet Met

(Chung Hwa Service)
Peking, Feb. 2.—With part payment of their long overdue salaries at last an accomplished fact, officials of the Ministry of Education have returned to work and teachers of the eight Government schools in Peking have taken up their duties with the reopening of the schools after the New Year holidays. The decision of the officials of the ministry was made at a meeting held yesterday with Mr. Chen Huan, Vice-Minister of Education, who assured the officials that one month's arrears would be paid before February 15 and the remainder as soon as the funds were available. As this was considered satisfactory the departmental chiefs immediately decided to call off the strike the next day.

The original demands of the officials when they went on strike on November 14 were four in number. (1) That one month's arrears should be paid before the foreign New Year; (2) That two months arrears should be paid before the Chinese New Year; (3) That the remainder should be paid as soon as the funds were available; (4) That salaries should be paid regularly and promptly. These demands were submitted to Mr. Ma Lin-yi, then vice-minister of education, and were later given to Mr. Chen. While the first demand has been complied with, the second has been only partially carried out as the officials have received but one month's salary instead of two before the Chinese New Year. Mr. Chen declared yesterday, however, that he would do his best for the fulfillment of this demand and of the third and fourth.

The teachers of the eight government schools finally received on the eve of the Chinese New Year 70 percent of their December salary and on New Year's Day another 20 percent. This brought about at least temporary relief in educational circles and it is reported that the schools have now opened with fresh enthusiasm on the part of their teaching staffs. The directors of the schools have declared that they will keep working for those arrears of salary which are still due to the teachers.

The Jewish Communal Association is the leading Jewish charitable organization of Shanghai.

GERMANS RETURNING

(Eastern News Agency)
Mukden, Feb. 6.—Germans who resided here in pre-war days are returning one after another. Some of them have already commenced activities, and have now under consideration a plan to establish a big factory to manufacture dynamite. To that end, they contemplate using raw materials produced in Manchuria and Mongolia. The remarkable German activities are being watched with keen interest by merchants concerned in general.

ALLENBY CHEERED

(Reuters Service)
Cairo, Feb. 4.—Lord Allenby received a striking send-off by a large and representative gathering, including a number of Egyptian ex-Ministers. He was cheered with unusual demonstration.

Alexandria, Feb. 4.—Three hundred notables saw Lord Allenby off for England today. The Field-Marshal has been summoned to advise the Government in regard to the Egyptian situation.

VOTES FOR WOMEN

(Reuters Service)
Delhi, Feb. 4.—The Legislative Assembly today adopted by 41 votes to 26 a non-official resolution enfranchising women in the Legislative Assembly elections at Bombay and Madras, which are the only places where suffrage exists.

Sir Vincent Home, a member, intimated that the Government would abide by the decision of the House.

Give Russia A Chance
THE revelations which the German Government has made as a preliminary to the Cannes Conference disclose what that country has been capable of accomplishing since the cessation of hostilities. A Reuter telegram dated January 28 from Berlin states that in Germany railway passenger fares have increased nineteen times, freight rates thirty times and postal and telegraph rates twenty times as compared with before the war. This flourishing condition of affairs is actually causing the German Reichstag to adopt proposals to raise the coal tax from twenty to forty percent of the increase in consumption and to increase the property tax and other taxes as well as the Customs dues which are to be levied on a real gold basis.

All these and countless other improvements in Germany's economic condition are the result of sheer hard work. Germany is working as no other country on the face of the globe is. While other countries are facing unemployment, commercial stagnation, high cost of living, etc., Germany alone is plodding her way through the great economic chaos which has seized the world at large. It is the state of enforced idleness on the part of other countries that is producing such a chronic state of world depression. It is not so much the case that these other countries are unable to work as it is that they are not being allowed to work. Russia offers one of the best examples of this statement.

It is safe to assert that had Russia been permitted to go ahead with her work of regeneration as Germany was allowed to resume her industrial and economic life the world would not have witnessed such deplorable conditions as have been in existence now for some years. Germany's program of budget reform that will be presented before the Cannes Conference cannot fail to open the eyes of modern economists, for notwithstanding the deep adverse current of financial speculation which the German mark has had to contend against, it has managed to survive, thanks only to hard work on the part of the German people.

Hard work is the only factor that can save the world from ruin, therefore it behooves all those great nations concerned in their own fate to redeem the errors of yesterday and reach some common understanding whereby the existing obstructions impeding the future progress of the world may be removed.

The old saw of placing the blame on Russia for the present economic and commercial deadlock of the world will have to be forsaken, as also will the accusations made by some of these great powers against Germany and the danger of her commercial supremacy of the world. Healthy competition, like Shakespeare's gentle dew from Heaven, blesteth him that gives and him that takes and the world today, from its experiences of yesterday, has ceased to fear another country's superior commercial productions.

Russia's condition appears to many as perplexing and problematical, so far as the future security of the world is concerned and consequently is viewed by many with no small amount of concern. Naturally, Russia's revolution and the subsequent hardships experienced by the Russian people as a result of repeated attacks made upon Russia by her enemies are responsible for this together with the deplorable fact that prior to the Great War Russia was little understood or even known by the enlightened world.

The existing distorted impression of Russia and the Russians in general will also have to be removed before it can be possible to settle down, because Russia formerly was and is destined to be for some long time to come a purely agricultural country, capable of supplying the world with agricultural products that will favorably compete with those of other countries, thereby helping to reduce the existing high cost of living. Russian raw materials before the war were instrumental in keeping thousands of European factories working full time. This factor alone bids fair to be the raison d'être for arriving at some favorable decision at the Cannes Conference.

Despite the numerous holidays, Russia can boast of a degree of intensity and productiveness of labor that compares most favorably with that of other countries. In fact, Russian labor, in many cases, is more productive and cheaper than can be obtained in other countries possessing a like degree of civilization. Russia is capable of working equally as hard as Germany; if only she shall be permitted to settle down peacefully to her labors. That all this Russian latent energy should be throttled and diverted into channels other than those of reconstruction and economic regeneration can be laid at the door of Russia's enemies, who, instead of permitting her to occupy herself in the matter of internal reconstruction and thereby paving the way for the establishment of a program of reform, based on hard work, which undoubtedly would have placed her in as favorable position as her more fortunate neighbor Germany, have constantly threatened her with attacks, which is the chief cause today of the present condition of world collapse. It is to be hoped that the Cannes Conference will bear fruit in the direction here indicated.

"LIBERTY CALENDAR"

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS.

Sir—Well has Thomas David Schall of Minnesota done in his arrangement of time, to be styled the "Liberty Calendar." However, in my opinion, Mr. Schall has forgotten one thing and that is the one extra day to be added to February every four years. He has not taken this day into account in his proposal. One cannot cut the one extra day out because the period during which the earth makes one complete journey round the sun is 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, and 52 seconds; therefore, in every four years there is an extra day. Inasmuch as the blind representative suggested that, after taking 13 months of 28 days each out of the 365 days, the remaining 1 day be made a New Year Day, I would say that the one extra day be made a "World's Repentance Day."

In your article headed "New Calendar will create 13th month" which appeared last Saturday, January 28, 1922, there is one sentence which I do not understand and that is "Beginning in 1925 every seventh year it would be observed as Sunday."

Do we observe the whole year as Sunday or do we give the year a new name, the name "Sunday Year?"

Yours faithfully,
J. P. O. Y.

My Own Report :: No. 6

By Jabin Hsu

(Mr. Hsu attended the Washington Disarmament Conference as staff correspondent of THE CHINA PRESS and THE EVENING STAR. He was also a special correspondent for the New York Herald, the Baltimore Sun and the San Francisco Chronicle. In this series of articles being written by him since his return from the United States, he gives to readers the first record of a Chinese journalist's close hand impressions of the world's confab and draws some interesting conclusions.)

WHO is getting the most out of the Conference? This is perhaps a question pertinent enough for any layman to ask. The world and the Chinese were duped into considering the Washington Conference as a momentous move towards universal peace. Actually, it was shaping into an Anglo-American-Japanese understanding while France figured as a mere allied decoration, by reason of the erstwhile entente cordiale but not counting as a special factor in the parley. China entered the Conference in a negative way. Her presence was tolerated or even desired by the important nations represented at the American capital but not welcome, especially when she attempted to make demands for her territorial and administrative independence.

Delegates of the 1921 triumvirate met in a very friendly way. Secrecy prevailed with regard to the conversations. The other powers were virtually told of the advantage of submission to the superior judgment of the trio. They smarted over the situation but they had to submit to the inevitable. Mr. Arthur Bullard, the American publicist, has seen the problem with a clear vision; he foresees that Teutons, Slavs and Latins will look upon this combination with much suspicion. It will stimulate a new balance of power, breeding another world war more sanguine than ever.

FRANCE'S POSITION
M. Briand, the French premier, remarked at this stage of the parley that France was morally isolated, she had nothing to say and she was in Washington merely as an on-looker. The premier understood the situation and knew that the goose had been cooked long ago. At the second plenary session M. Briand made an eloquent plea for France. The plea was addressed rather to the delegates at Continental Memorial Hall. No one except the official interpreter understood what M. Briand said, but everybody applauded. At least two eminent British journalists misunderstood him. Mr. H. G. Wells, who has practically the entire English-speaking world to make up his audience, interpreted the oration as a threat against Great Britain. His syndicated articles in the American and British press created a tremendous sensation. Several British papers echoed the possibilities of an Anglo-French war. Colonel Repington's cable reports containing a misconception of the proceedings of the session caused riots and anti-French demonstrations in numerous Italian cities.

"France will go as far in sacrifices as any other power to establish equilibrium in the Far East," said the Premier. He left Washington convinced that the interests of all nations were not being looked after and that the Conference was being held to preserve the interests of Britain, Japan and the United States. Past experience in diplomatic history has taught French statesmen to approximate the situation in Washington more easily than others. Late in the 19th century, France attempted to break away from isolation and ally herself with Russia. Briand returned, therefore, convinced that France must make up with her former opponents, Germany and Turkey and her abandoned partner, Russia, if she would remain as a first class power after the consummation of the new entente, in which the French position was merely decorative.

L. GEORGE'S HAND
Students of international affairs could see the hand of Lloyd George all over the Washington Conference table. His agent, Mr. Balfour, performed his duties most admirably. Lloyd George would carry out the program of the Anglo-Japanese-American Alliance. He told Japan that in spite of the strenuous opposition that had developed in Canada, Australia and Great Britain itself, the Lloyd George Government did not desire to alienate the Mikado's country as long as it remained in power. The Japanese delegation, of course, welcomed this opportunity. By this combination they can retain their power in the politics of the island. They will also extract themselves out of isolation. Japan's controlling clique, the Seikai, was doomed to fade if it failed to secure the combination. And it did. Notice the satisfaction of Prince Tokugawa upon his return to Japan last Tuesday.

He was high in his praise for the new quadruple entente. He insisted that the pact would sweep away "the low barometric pressure hovering over the Pacific and threatening to lead to another world war." Said he: "The significant event of naval limitation should contribute in no small degree to the cause of world peace and civilization. From the standpoint of Japan, the results are satisfactory."

Tokugawa knows full well that neither his own country nor her ally, Great Britain, can afford to build capital ships because of their financial condition. What is called the American naval proposition was really made for consumption in London and Tokyo. I know many people will contest my view that Japan wanted the Hughes proposal in its original form. But it is the truth. There is a saying in China that certain drunkards do not get drunk for the love of liquor but for the pleasure of fooling with the young lady at the party. Japan did not really get hysterical over her pet Mutsu but she wept all over the carpet in order that the world might become sympathetic and feed her with Shantung sweets and Manchurian candy.

BRITAIN'S DEFICIT
Sir Robert Horne, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer, said in the House of Commons on November 9 that the deficit in England's budget this year would amount to over £200,000,000 and that the outlook for the next year was even more gloomy, because her income would be less and she would have to pay interest upon the billions she owed to America. The financial position of Great Britain was clearly revealed. She could no longer bear the heavy burden of warship construction. By a clever diplomatic move, however, she succeeds in saving billions but retains her supremacy on the sea.

I need not treat the Japanese phase at great length. Everything except the baby carriage is taxed in this empire. The idea, of course, is to increase her population and substantiate her cry of necessity for economic expansion. Misery is written on the face of everyone in the laboring class and Bolshevism is at work in the few factories that are able to keep their doors open. Bankrupt since the Russo-Japanese War, but hoping to fatten itself by parasitism upon the Shantung and Manchuria fruit, Japan surely welcomes the opportunity of saving the billions earned by "blood and sweat" and at the same time retaining her role as the Vampire of the Pacific.

OLD DIPLOMACY
Great Britain and Japan have taken possession of the Conference. With their delegates, who are trained in the old school of diplomacy, with their able propagandists and with their influence, or even control of the powerful American press, they swayed the proceedings of the Conference in whatever way they liked. At the farewell party given by us foreign journalists in Washington to Lord Riddell, the British liaison officer, the special guest voiced the hope that an economic conference might soon follow the present confab in London and that a third conference on Far Eastern Questions might be called later in Tokyo. I thought, and many agreed with me, that all that trouble could well be eliminated and both might just as well follow the present one in Washington. The delegates from London and Tokyo could not have manipulated the proceedings more in their own capitals than in Washington. The American press often deceived itself that the United States was controlling the Conference situation and some accomplishment was made by America every day for the cause of humanity. As a matter of fact, American leadership was taken away from its delegation immediately after her chief spokesman spoke on the necessity of a naval holiday. From then on British and Japanese influence predominated.

FRENCH LEAVE
France gracefully withdrew when she knew that her presence was not required. Both M. Briand and M. Viviani sailed at an early stage of the session. Italy took no significant part in the Conference at all. Holland had nothing to say. She nods for Great Britain enthusiastically because she knows that the Dutch Indies are so perilously near the British base, Singapore. Of course, Portugal has her gambling dens in Macao, so she must have a voice in deciding the fate of China. For diplomatic reasons, she too follows the lead of England.

In Washington today, therefore, is staged a genuine Anglo-American-Japanese Conference working out world destiny. However, among the three, it is not the Americans but the British who are leading. Balfour, Geddes and Lee are leading Hughes, Lodge and Root as

Japanese Hand Seen In Seizure Of U. S. Official In Siberia

[This is the first of a series of articles written for the Peking and Tientsin Times by Mr. Frederick McCormick, the famous Special Correspondent, who has spent 21 years in Eastern Asia, Russia and Siberia. He has acted as Special Correspondent for important British and American publications, Reuter's, the Associated Press, etc. His dispatches on the Boxer rising, the Russo-Japanese War, the subjugation of Korea, the Chinese Revolution, the Russian Revolution, and other great events gained him world-wide fame. He is the author of several works on China and Asia.]

BY FREDERICK MCCORMICK
I have spent the months since May, 1921 in travel and investigation on the East Siberian coast, between Kamchatka and Amur Bay. I arrived in Vladivostok, October 3, and when the so-called "search" of Major Clarke of the Inter-Allied Technical Board took place October 23, it became apparent to me that something was going on not explainable by ordinary terms.

With the beginning of November, I had in my hands more than a dozen original documents and certified copies of original documents which conveyed the intelligence that we were on the eve of some appalling tragedy at Vladivostok.

In these documents Major-General Tachibana, Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese Forces in Siberia, the Japanese High Command at Vladivostok, the Imperial Japanese Army General Staff in Tokyo, and the Imperial Ministry of War and Government of Japan, were incriminated in a diabolical plot against the American Railway Mission at the head of which is John F. Stevens, associate and Chairman of the body of high representatives of Japan and the Powers, together with China, in charge of Siberian railways.

The texts of these documents, in part, are given below.

The first is the military order of Major-General Tachibana and the Chief of the Japanese General Staff, through Colonel Asano, Chief of the Intelligence Department in Siberia, to the President of the Pri-Amur Provisional Government, Merkuloff, to establish surveillance over Major Clarke, Member of the American Railway Mission and American Representative of Stevens and the Inter Allied Technical Board, at Vladivostok. It follows:

D. S. (Dear Sir.)

By this has the honor to communicate for your information about the leave of American Representative, Chairman Technical Section Inter-Allied Railway Committee for Nikolai Usurisk and Harbin. According to the information of Japanese Railway Section Major Clarke must have meeting with Representative of R. C. P. (Russian Communist Party, Translator) Osolin and Grigoroff. Very probable this meeting would disclose interesting results, provided surveillance being established over Major Clarke.

Japanese Command proposes that you will not refuse in corresponding order to:

Colonel Bogoslovsky and Boolakhov, Chief 4th Section of Staff of J. F. (Japanese Forces) in F. E. (Far East),
Colonel General Staff, ASANO.

The second sets up a charge against Major Clarke with which to reassure President Merkuloff, and reiterates the Japanese command that President Merkuloff follow up Japan's instructions for the search of Major Clarke. It follows:

To Chairman Provisional Pri-Amur Govt.,
S. D. Merkuloff.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter for September 23, 1921, once more am communicating for your information, that Japanese Command are never using non-examined information. Connection of Major Clarke with the Communists, also his friendship with Shatoff and Koshvynoff is established by us long ago.

The Commander of the Imperial Japanese Forces in Siberia proposes that you will certainly agree with our arguments and will follow in your actions according our instructions in connection with the search of Major Clarke's car.

Chief 4th Section Japanese Expeditionary Forces in Siberia,
Colonel General Staff, ASANO.

The third is the final command to President Merkuloff, mentioning to him the fact that necessity follows upon Japan's instruction. It follows:

No. 129/34.
October 19, 1921.
Main Office Japanese Expeditionary Forces in Siberia.
To Chairman Provisional Pri-Amur Government,
S. D. Merkuloff.

[Translated Copy.]

To V. E. Ivanoff:
For Execution,

D. S. (Dear Sir.)

According to information received by us American Representative, Chairman Technical Section Inter-Allied Railway Committee, Major Clarke received in Harbin from Representative of F. E. R. (Far Eastern Republic, Translator), Osolin a secret code for communication of R. C. P. (Russian Communist Party, Translator) and several letters addressed to local Party leaders. Colonel Asano would propose that you will find it necessary to issue an order for search of Major Clarke's car. Japanese Command proposes that the search will disclose voluminous material. Would be desirable to see Col. Boolakhov and to give him additional information.

Major OKIAMA.

The fourth is the report of the Chief of the Administration of the Militia Section under President Merkuloff, through his Chief of Intelligence, that the details for the search of Major Clarke are being arranged with the Japanese. It follows:

The fifth is a report by Tachibana to the Ministry of War at Tokyo informing it that he has completed his arrangements for the next step in the aim to discredit John F. Stevens, the American Railway Mission, and the Inter-Allied Technical Board in charge of Siberian railways, by an act of terror against Major Clarke. It follows:

Hall's Distemper has led the way to a new era in house decoration—the era of brighter, cleaner and healthier homes.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.

Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.

Needs An Annex For Newest Medal

"H! ha!" says "Stubby," smiling, as you plainly can see by the photograph. "Maybe there's something in this dog's life they talk about, after all! General Pershing just pinned a medal on me. Maybe you can't see it, because kings and others had stuck so many others on me. But it's there. Because I'm a wounded hero and everything. I'm a life member of the Y. M. C. A., with three bones a day and a place to sleep guaranteed. Pretty soft, what? That's the way "Stubby" feels about it all. "Stubby," a bull terrier, went through the World War with veterans of the One Hundred and Second Infantry, has been wounded and is the wearer of three service stripes. "Stubby's" latest medal came from the Humane Education Society and was presented by General Pershing at Washington.

Chamber Asked For Treaty Views

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, Feb. 2.—The Government has notified the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce at Shanghai that it contemplates negotiating a commercial treaty with Austria in the near future. It asks that the business interests represented in the Chamber should express their views regarding the principles on which such a treaty should be based.

Chang Asked To Welcome Joffe

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, Feb. 2.—In a telegram to General Chang Tso-lin the Government informs him of the approaching visit of Marshal Joffe to China, stating that the distinguished French soldier is to be treated as the guest of the nation and requesting General Chang to arrange a fitting reception for him on his arrival at Mukden.

Middle Classes In Vienna Suffer

(Reuter's Service)
Vienna, Feb. 5.—The plight of the middle classes is so severe that the American relief organizations have contributed 200,000 dollars to supply them, particularly the intellectual workers, with foodstuffs. University professors and thousands of students are availing themselves of this offer. The Americans will also feed the school children until June 1.

Ex-Premier Shies At Peking Post

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, Feb. 3.—Notwithstanding a promise given by General Wang Shih-chen some time ago, that he would come to Peking on February 13 and assume the post of President of the Chiang Chun-fu, General Wang has now submitted his resignation to the President, explaining that his advanced age prevents him from filling the appointment in question.

Chang Scouts C.E.R. Report

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, Feb. 2.—General Chang Tso-lin has telegraphed to the Government expressing indignation at the report that appeared in the Chinese press that the Washington Conference proposed to internationalise the Chinese Eastern Railway. General Chang ridicules the idea of such a course.

Finance Chief Resigns Post

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, Feb. 5.—Mr. Chang Hu, the Finance Minister, has resigned and left for Tientsin. It is believed as a result of an altercation at yesterday's Cabinet meeting with Mr. Kao Ling-wei, who wanted to reserve a portion of the proceeds of the proposed $96,000,000 loan for administrative purposes.

It is thought that the President will postpone consideration of the matter till the general Cabinet question has been settled.

Japan Building
Forts In Korea

(Dalla News Agency)
Dairen, Feb. 2.—According to the Japanese newspaper, Yoru-dan, the Japanese military authorities are constructing fortifications along the entire border of Korea, for the purpose of defending the country from bandits and revolutionaries liable to break in from Manchuria and the Russian part on the Korean border. The system of defence consists of a series of fortified points with artillery pieces of the latest type. With auxiliary military equipments a garrison of 4,000 men can carry out an effective defence on land. This number of soldiers will be taken from the division now stationed in Korea.

A sum of ¥1,300,000 has been assigned for the construction. It is supposed that the whole line of fortifications will be completed within the current year, after which the Japanese gendarmes will be recalled.

Los Angeles Police Baffled By Murder

(Reuter's Service)
Los Angeles, Feb. 4.—The murder of Mr. Taylor, who was found dead in his house yesterday with a bullet wound through the back of his neck, is proving most baffling.

The latest theory concerns a recent "dope party," at which two film actresses quarrelled and fought over Mr. Taylor, who was not present. It is suggested that one of the women, to whose advances Mr. Taylor had failed to respond, employed a professional gun-man to carry out the murder.

Los Angeles, Feb. 4.—The inquest on Mr. Taylor terminated abruptly today "for police purposes." The verdict was that deceased was shot by an unknown person.

Los Angeles, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Robbins, the former wife of Mr. Taylor has been found here. She says she is unable to throw any light on the mystery of his death. She married Mr. Taylor, whose real name, she states, was William Cunningham Tanner, in 1901.

He disappeared in 1908, after withdrawing his money from the bank, and telephoning to her that she would never see him again. She secured a divorce in 1912 and remarried in 1914.

Tuchuns Confer With Chang Tso-lin

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, Feb. 5.—A conference began yesterday between General Chang Tso-lin and the representatives of Hellingkang, Kirin, Suaiyuan and Jehol, in connection with which Mr. Chang Ching-hual left for Mukden from Peking yesterday morning, after a lengthy discussion of the political situation with the Chihli representatives.

Another conference begins at Paoingfu today between the representatives of Kiangsu, Kiangsi, Hupai, Honan and Shensi and General Wu Pei-fu, Tso Jui and Tso Yin.

It was originally attended that the latter conference should have the results of the meeting at Mukden before opening, but Mr. Chang Ching-hual's mission will probably delay the Mukden discussions for some days. Hence a solution to the Cabinet situation is not immediately expected.

Meanwhile Mr. Liang Shih-yi and Mr. Yeh Kung-cho are remaining at Tientsin, though the President has requested them both to return to the capital.

Communications Bank Will Float $20,000,000 Shares

(Easton News Agency)
Peking, Feb. 5.—An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders of the Bank of Communications was held here this afternoon, notwithstanding the criticism that the members of the Old Communications Clique such as Liang Shih-yi and Yeh Kung-cho had an axe to grind when they proposed to hold the general meeting.

At the meeting, a resolution for the floatation of new shares to the value of $20,000,000 was passed unanimously, and Mr. Chiang Pang-yen (right-hand man of Liang Shih-yi) and Mr. Chen Fuyi (subordinate to Yeh Kung-cho) were elected as President and Vice President of the Bank, respectively.
